DETAILED ACTIONClaim Rejections - 35 USC § 103¹

Claims 1, 5 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over USP 3,987,068. The reference teaches separating a portion of reaction product by removing acetonitrile by distillation (note example 1) in a process of contacting a hydroxyaromatic compound with oxygen in the presence of a copper compound and can include hydrogen bromide (note line 21 of column 4) or ionic bromide salts such as cupric bromide and cuprous bromide (note lines 18 and 19 of column 4 and Examples 2, 7 and 8). The claims read on this prior art process.

Double Patenting²

Claims 1-11 and 18-24 rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-22 of U.S.

¹ The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

² The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Art Unit: 1621

Patent No. 6,815,565. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the instant claims read on the recycling embodiment contemplated by the conflicting claims. The claims read on the method of recycling of the catalysts taught by the conflicting patent to be within the purview of the patented process, note the discussion in the bottom half of column 8 to the top of column 9. Also, particularly note the separation recited in conflicting claims 9+. One practicing this embodiment of the patented process would also be within the purview of the instant claims.

Specification

Applicants should update the status of copending applications cited in the specification. It is particularly noted that none of the recited application actually having an issue date since they are still pending or are abandoned. Correction is required.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 12-17 and 25-29 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
